With sincere thanks,

DeeDee enrolled at our school during the last quarter of school. She was not happy to be in "Ghetto Falcon" instead of Florida. She hated everything about our school and all the people in it. To increase proximity I found many reasons to see her during lunch or before or after school or whenever. I would "forget" why I needed to see her at times, but inevitably I got to learn what DeeDee was all about. She would always be respectful outside of her class, but during class she would continuously act out. By the end of the year - in my yearbook - DeeDee said she was impressed that I didn't give up on her and spent so much time caring about "the new kid." Oh - by May she had also become the kind of student who lights up during lessons and contributes positively to the class.

It's very overwhelming and I realize that everytime I ~~to~~ take this class I can only learn the next skill above where I am... Thank you for modeling patience + compassion. I have shared this class w/ everyone I know. I will take it as much as I can (choose to)! Have a beautiful

My sister & I are incredibly close. We both know we "have issues" and to be able to share what I've learned has been the best. She told me that this certainly was the best time for me to have this class. 😊

On Fri. nite we were in Cripple Creek & I had talked all the way up about ARFF. I headed to the bathroom & she sat down at a machine to watch & wait for me. She put in a $5.00 that she had picked up from some "Woodies" we shared. She pushed one button and won $3,500. Talk about FUN, FREEDOM and a feeling of achievement. We were loving it!! Actually you may be certain I was laughing & dancing with joy for her! We celebrated her.
