Positive personal thought:

I have always struggled with a positive self image and constantly thinking of "my list". This lead to always feeling depressed and not worthy of any praise I received. Now, I have a tool to help me look inward to realize my strengths and continue to succeed. Thank you so much for ~~giving~~ the gift of ARTF with me. My significant showing other, my students, and myself are grateful for this new way of living. I will be back.

With total gratitude,

I appreciate the permission to "let it go"! Other people can have opinions, and if I don't agree I can change judgement to fascination. "Why does he think that way? What life experience gives him that impression?"

I love how so much of this class matches with the Growth Mindset - look it up if you haven't heard of it before! Basically, in a nutshell, people can be in

a FIXED MINDSET

OR

GROWTH MINDSET

"I can't..."

"I'm dumb..."

"I'm bad at..."

- avoiding challenge + conflict

- takes the easy way out

"I can with practice."

"My brain can grow + stretch w/ positive practice."

"I currently struggle with..."

- seeks out challenge / mistakes

- chooses to learn from mistakes.

~~So many of these turned~~

WOW!
