Denny, you truly are a gift in my life and to this world! You have dedicated your life to creating a healthier world! ♡
Every time I take the class, different themes stand out to me! One of my many big take-aways this time is the importance of having a back bone, sticking to my values, and not diminishing myself to make sick people like me... ♡ they will not like me no matter what, so it may as well be the real me! You have helped give me the confidence to show others the real me and do what feels good to me!

Denny, I hope you know in your heart the incredible ripple effects of change and love you've spread around the world!

You truly inspire me!
Thank you for being real!
Love, Angelina ♡

This workshop was the best I have ever attended. Denny showed he knew what he was talking about using examples that I experience every day in teaching. I felt personally included and came away with so many tools I can implement in my classroom and school immediately. More importantly, I WANT to implement them both at school and home with my own family. Denny and high trust is an absolute gift that everyone should have more of.
